

Benefits of CICC Membership

Advocacy

1. CICC advocacy directed at Governor's office, legislators, and/or regulatory agencies regarding issues affecting CICC members*
2. Seasoned chemical industry lobbyists w/ local, state, federal and international experience
3. Coalition building for greater leverage and effectiveness
4. Member grassroots networking and outreach
5. Direct access to CICC lobbyists*

Political Involvement 101

6. Instructional assistance regarding the nuances of California's legislative and regulatory processes
7. Bill tracking and issue research
8. Introductions to key legislative and regulatory decision-makers
9. Coaching regarding the does & don'ts of building political relationships*
10. Good Chemistry Political Action Committee sponsored by CICC

Communications and networking

11. Frequent updates to www.cicc.org (w/secure Members Only communications and document postings)
12. Twice monthly membership web-meetings & info sharing
13. Face-to-Face "Issues" meetings and Board meetings open to members
14. Facilitate member-to-member networking opportunities
15. Access to programs and information sponsored by coalition partners

Additional Programs

16. Issue management and communications consultation as requested regarding issues affecting a particular facility, operation, or product*
17. Anti-terrorist awareness training and facilitated opportunities to meet w/ law enforcement and Homeland Security representatives
18. Active participation with the FBI in the national InfraGard partnership

* CICC is a mutual benefit corporation with a mission to serve the general needs of its membership. As a consequence individualized member services are not without limitation. CICC staff will respond to all requests but on a case-by-case basis may at some point be obligated to refer a member to a third party.