

Lisa L.W. Johnson Named General Manager of the Chemical Industry Council of California

The Chemical Industry Council of California (CICC) is pleased to announce that Lisa L. W. Johnson, formerly of Hasa, Inc., has been unanimously selected by the CICC Board of Directors to fill the newly-created position of contract General Manager.

Lisa will be responsible to the Board of Directors for administration, finance, membership, and member outreach services. "I'm excited about the opportunity to bring new members to the organization and extend its positive presence in the communities served by the chemical industry within California," she said. Lisa will also work in close collaboration with CICC contract Executive Director, Tom Jacob, who is responsible to the Board of Directors for advising on chemical policy matters, and the implementation of CICC's legislative and regulatory advocacy program. "I couldn't be more pleased with the Board's choice for General Manager," said Tom Jacob. "To have a person of Lisa's talent, experience, and enthusiasm on the CICC team will be a true asset."

Lisa Johnson is no stranger to California's complex chemical industry or to CICC. Having spent nearly nineteen years with Hasa in various management positions, including vice-president for operations, Lisa is a seasoned chemical industry professional. Further, as a member representative of Hasa, Lisa served fourteen years on the CICC Board of Directors during which time she was CICC Chair from 2009 to 2013 and chairperson of the CICC's Executive Committee from 2013 to 2017. Prior to joining Hasa, Lisa spent ten years in the semi-conductor industry. Lisa took her leave from Hasa in August 2017 upon the sale of the company and a change of management.

Lisa Johnson holds a bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Colorado, and a master's degree in Business Administration from Saint Mary's College of California.

CICC Chair, Beth Percynski (P&G) said, "We're eager to begin working with Lisa, and I invite all CICC's members and friends to join Tom Jacob and the CICC Board of Directors in welcoming her."
